NUMBER 37

IT WERE THE NUP-TIALS

Central Presbyterian Church
on, Of Former Crittenden-County Young Lady.

RECEPTION AT HOPKINSVILLE.

Central Presbyterian church city, Tuesday afternoon at 4 the holy rites of matrimony between Mr. A. E. and Miss Ethel N. Adams.
Cuptial ceremony making this was pronounced by the Presbyterian divine, Rev. of Hopkinsville, in impressive eloquent measure.

Altar was artistically decorated with potted palms and flowers forming a floral bank, which Miss Alma Schnabel, musician of Corydon, Ky., intimate friend of the bride, sat at the organ. Those with the ceremony were directed to seats by ushers, Coleman of Hopkinsville, and Hinkle of this city.

Shortly before four o'clock the car with the bridal party arrived the church, and while the march was being in the vestibule, Mrs. J. L. sang, "I would Live or I'd or You," Miss Schnabel playing accompaniment. As the last note died away, the organ the wedding march, and the party entered, preceded by the one down either aisle. The brides were Misses Melville Akin, Mr. C. A. Graham, Miss Mary Dyer and Mr. S. Wilson Ad-The bride entered upon the of her grandfather, S. Hodge, the groom before the altar, Rev. Dr. Nourse awaited them.
The ceremony was brief but beautiand solemn.

Later the entire wedding party, a few other invited guests, took 5:30 train for Hopkinsville where they were tendered a reception and supper by the bride's uncle aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. C.
The party was composed
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Greenhill, Miss Melville Akin, Mary Weav-Dyer, and Alma Schnabel of Corydon. Messrs. C. A. Graham, of Decatur, Ala., Coleman Moore, Hopkinsville, S. W. Adams and Franklin Rawles, of Princeton, and Rev. Dr. Nourse.

Besides those above named, others ending the nuptials from a distance

Mrs. S. A. Adams of Trinity, the mother of the bride, Mrs.
C. Moore, of Hopkinsville, and
S. Emmons, Trinity Ala.
The bride is a native of Marion Crittenden county, and with her parents Rev. R. H. and Mrs. S. A.
Adams resided in this city, number years ago, her father who died a years later, being at the head the Princeton Collegiate Institute. had prepared herself for the pro-sion of a trained nurse, a few months ago taking a post graduate course at Bellevue hospital, New York, and was located at Louisville.

She is a grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Hodge, this city, and a young lady of rare intellectual gifts and many accomplishments.

The groom is a popular and prosperous young business man of New Decatur, Ala., and greatly interested in Y. M. C. A. work, being assistant secretary of the organization at that place.

The newly wedded couple left Hopkinsville on an early morning train Wednesday for their future home in New Decatur, bearing with them the good wishes of a host of friends.

IN MEMORIAM.

Clara Porter Carnahan passed away January 1, 1910, aged four years and eleven months.

She was a member of the Beginner's class in the Methodist Sunday school, and the first one to pass from our midst into the fold of the loving Shepherd.

"We know he will but keep Our own and his until we fall asleep.
We know he does not mean To break the strands reaching between

The here and there."

She was a bright, affectionate child, ready to greet her teacher with a smile, so we miss her greatly.

We extend our sympathy to her bereaved parents and grandparents.

May the little beconing hands gently guide them to the Father's home.

"I love to think that somewhere, In the country we call heaven,
The land most fair of everywhere

Will unto them be given;

A land of little faces—very little,
very fair—

And every one shall know her own,

And cleave unto it there.

Oh, grant it, loving Father, to The broken hearts that plead!

Thy way is best—yet, oh, to be

In perfect faith indeed!

To know that we shall find them.

Even them, the wee, white dead.

At Thy right hand in Thy bright land,

By the living waters led!"

HER S. S. TEACHER.

Notice.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Notice is hereby given that I have this day emancipated and set entirely free my son, Claud Tabor, who will hereafter be permitted to contract and be contracted with, work for himself and to receive and retain his wages therefor. And especial notice is also hereby given that hereafter, I shall not in any way or manner be or become responsible for any debt, default or liability of the said Claud Tabor, and shall not in any way or manner be or become liable for anything that he may purchase, either necessaries or otherthing whatsoever, neither will I be responsible for any set of any kind of the said Claud Tabor, but shall give him henceforth all that he can earn or make and he must pay his own bills and be responsible for his own acts. He is hereby emancipated and given his freedom to do and act for himself, and for his debts, liabilities and acts of whatever kind I am no longer bound. This January 12, 1910.

LETTER FROM HON. MARION F. POGUE

O. Wicker, of Frances Precinct Elected Assistant Clerk of the House, After a Hot Fight

HARMONY PREVAILS AND THE TREASURY IS EMPTY.

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 10, 1910.
Friend Calmes:

The first week of the legislature is now history. We have seen several assemblies, but some how, this one is to us, the queerest yet, and you may not be surprised if it turns up SOME SURPRISES before the thing is over. Everything and everybody seem so strange, but that may be because we are lost in the New Capital, and have not yet got our bearings.

The New Capitol is to us yet what the city is to the backwoods visitor on his initial trip. It is well worth a trip to see the stately pile. Domes reaching skywards, colossal pillars, symmetric columns, marble walls and massive stairways all lend beauty, strength to this, one of the most splendid structures on the continent.

No Kentuckian can view this building without a feeling of pride, however tight he may hold his own purse strings, he is bound to be glad that "somebody" had it done. And then, no charge of graft, in all the years of building has ever come to make any Kentuckian blush with shame. No graft, no extravagance! How good that sounds, when millions have been squandered in other states and scandals galore.

As to progress, we are now just before going to work. Organization has been perfected with perfect harmony, the Republicans in the House especially with drawing their candidates and voting for the Democratic caucus nominees.

George Wilson, of Union, is making and ideal Speaker of the House; he won without opposition.

All Crittendenites will be glad to know that Oscar Wicker, of Frances precinct, won out for Assistant Clerk of the House, after one of the hottest fights of our life. Well, you must fight if you would win.

Our old friend Bob Aiken has laid his insurance business by long enough to represent the good people of Caldwell county in this session. So will Senator Catlett look after our interests in the Senate Chamber.

I have never before seen harmony lying around in such big chunks—Democrats and Republicans actually sit together as desk-mates, and it was rumored that a pair of these once irreconcileables were seen to take a drink of Old Taylor out of the same flask. But this is only heresy, and I must report these matters as second handed, because I have taken the pledge, you know.

My dear readers it is indeed a gloomy prospect your servant has before him to-night, howling winds without and snow two feet deep on every side, an empty treasury already and the land lady cross, perhaps anxious to know where she comes in.

What, run a legislature without money? Yes, that is the way it looks now. Only a half million on hand and it belongs to the teacher of the State.

Oh what a glorious place soon for claim shavers! At the present rate June 15th will find us two million dollars in debt. What shall we do?
Issue bonds or raise the tax rate?
Or what, will you tell me?

Several bills have been offered in the Senate and Tuesday will be bill day in the House, then the flood gates will open and the bills will flow in.

We shall try to keep you posted about the happenings of the capital, and if you don't hear from us for quite a spell, you will know that stamps are out, for times are mighty close up here. Your Servant, MARION F. POGUE.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND LABOR

Bureau of the Census—The Secretary's Vigorous Address Follow the President.

ALL WILL WILL BE GLAD TO READ THIS INFORMATION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 8, 1910

Secretary Nagel of the Department of Commerce and Labor, under whose supervision is the work of the Bureau of the Census, at the conference of eastern state supervisors here, gave a vigorous talk on the subject of their duty, in which he emphasized and added to what had been said by the President to the Census field chiefs previously at the White House. The Secretary said:

"I wanted a chance to meet you—not to speak to you, but to shake hands and possibly exchange a word here and there as occasion might offer. There is a further reason why it will be difficult for me to say anything at this time. We have a rule that after the President has spoken his Secretaries have nothing to say.
[Laughter] I happened to be in the White House when you were there, and heard what the President said. To now repeat would not give emphasis; to add is barely pardonable.

"I am very glad that you did have an opportunity, however, to meet the President himself and to hear from him just what the attitude of the Executive on this matter of the taking of the census is, and I am glad that he had an opportunity to say to you how thoroughly he is in earnest about what he has heretofore said.

"It is unnecessary for me to dwell upon the importance of a correct census. Of course, we want to take a better census than has ever before taken—and that is no disservice of the work of predecessors. We ought to improve; we ought to improve for reasons which are self evident; we ought to improve because the need for a correct and adequate census now is greater than it has ever been before. It is so on account of the growth of our own country, and because we are coming into relations with other

On Christmas Eve night all Christendom united in celebrating the greatest event in the history of the world; the birth of our Saviour.

Christmas in Marion churches has always been a great event and this year has been no exception to the rule.

The Presbyterian Sunday School rendered a special program in the auditorium of the Main street church which was pronounced, by all present, the best ever witnessed in the city. Long before the hour for the exercises to begin the large auditorium was full of people, and an air of joyful anticipation pervaded the audience, adults as well as children.

The program rendered was a beautiful one. For the previous two weeks the members of the Sunday School had been rehearsing their parts, under the instructions of Mrs. S. M. Jenkins, assisted by Miss Holteclaw and Mrs. R. L. Moore, and each little fellow was in love with his part and anxious to carry it out and the unanimous verdict of the audience was that all did their parts perfectly, and that Mrs. Jenkins and her able assistants had proven themselves masters in the art of training children children.

After the program was over, and the names of each of the one hundred and twenty members of the Sunday School had been called, three different times, each calling taking with it a present from the large and beautiful Christmas tree, the Assistant Superintendent, after an appropriate talk, asked the audience to remain seated for a few minutes, and two baskets of oranges was passed among the audience, and every body present was asked to take some.

After the benediction, the people with their faces bright and shining with love which seems so prevalent during Christmas times, with one accord pronounced the event a grand success; and Mrs. Jenkins was the recipient of many hearty congratulations on her successful management. The adults as well as the children went out with the story of the babe found in the manger fresh in their minds, and every one was joyful, and more generous and charitable, from having the charm of the Christmas spirit perfected into His life again.

Flour spar business is on the rapid rise in Marion and orders are coming in fast and the demand for the product is at good prices.

As our streets have been blocked for some time with snow, we shall be glad when it is gone.

A meeting is in progress at the Baptist church that bids fair to awaken the town. Rev. Wm. D. Nowlin is an evangelist with a soul, saving reputation and backed, as he is, by Rev. M. E. Miller, one of the cleverest and best loved little preachers in this end of the state, with good singers from all the churches, there is every reason to expect great blessings from the meeting.

All of the newly elected officers are beginning to look at home in their new possessions and things are moving along smoothly.

W. B. RANKIN NOTIFIES THE STEMMING DISTRICT.

They Must Deliver No Funked Molded Tobacco For Fear Injuring Sales

To the members of the Stemming District Tobacco Association I wish to say: In preparing your tobacco for delivery members should bear in mind, that in our contract with the buyers they were not to take tobacco that is damaged by funk or mold, hail beaten or dirty from being rained on after having been cut. So if you should have any tobacco damaged from the above cause you should separate it from the sound or it will effect the price of the whole lot. In stripping, assort well and keep the long and the short separate. So the trader can put a proper valuation on your crop. Where tobacco is delivered in mixed lengths he can only estimate at the amount of each. Whatever you do, do not sprinkle tobacco. The buyers are not compelled to take it until offered in proper condition.

Again let me request that you who are not done stripping to tie in medium sized hands. In selling the Crittenden county pool, your Executive Board promised to do this. If we expect the buyers to comply with their part of the contract, we should be willing to do the same. Believing you will do this, as good, loyal members, I remain, Yours truly,

W. B. RANKIN,
Chairman Crittenden Co.

REV. GYRUS BRADY TOWN-SEND

Of Kansas City, Writes the Island of Regeneration and While Backed by Women of His

CHURCH IS CONDEMNED BY THE PRESS.

The board of directors of the Toledo public library barred "The Island of Regeneration," written by the Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady, rector of St. George's Episcopal church, Kansas City, and the women members of his Kansas City church are mad about it. One woman, the Kansas City public librarian, says: "The fact that Dr. Brady wrote it assures me that it is all right. We have two copies that are always out, and five more ordered."

A woman, being a victim of impulse, is not a proper person to say what the people shall, or shall not read, is she?

This woman says the book is "all right because Dr. Brady wrote it" evidently in the blind belief that a preacher can do no wrong. The illustrations in the book are enough to condemn it, even if a preacher wrote it with prayers before sharpening his pencil. In "The Island of Regeneration," a man lives on a desert island all alone. He has never seen a woman; he has never heard of a woman, and doesn't know what kind of a creature it is, when one day a woman is shipwrecked on his island. She sees that the man has the purity of ignorance, and also that her clothes will not last if she wears them, and also that the climate is so balmy she doesn't need any. So she appears to him with nothing on but a few leaves draped from her waist down. This picture appears in the book, but of course there is nothing wrong in it, because a preacher wrote it. She is aware of man's weakness, being of the world, but relies on his ignorance for her protection, and she reasons that all the emotions to which she was subject were in her own bosom; that the man before her neither knew nor cared for the things which vexed her. So she went on."

Which means, in every day talk, that she went on saving her clothes. She didn't know that the man knew, without being told, and that he followed her at night to the door of her cave and then because she trusted him, turns back, "face white in the moonlight, drops of sweat beading his brow, from the violence of his effort." You know what happened finally. She didn't put on her clothes and sail away, and he didn't forget that he was a Gentleman. But she forgot she was a Perfect Lady, and one night when he was wrestling with his emotions, she came to him, and the librarian of the Kansas City library says there is nothing wrong in the recital of what happened "because Dr. Brady wrote it."

In another picture, the woman dressed only in her wreath of leaves, lies in the man's arms. He is also saving his clothes, and is giving her the soul kiss. The story is a story of disgusting lust; it doesn't awaken a good sentiment in the mind of the reader, and is calculated to awaken many that are vile, and that it is all right because a preacher wrote it shows a blind confidence in preachers belonging several generations back. Dr. Brady should be ashamed of himself; and the board of directors of the Toledo library deserve some commendation for their ban upon this scandalous story. It would be interesting to know if the members of that board are men or women.

PASSES RESOLUTIONS OF RE-SEPECT

IN MEMORY OF THE LATE R. W. WILSON, BY THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN SESSION.

HAD FOR MANY YEARS BEEN ELDER OF CHURCH.

The session of the First Presbyterian church of Marion, Kentucky, desiring to attest their sense of loss sustained by the death of Mr. R. W. Wilson, who, for so many years, has been an elder in this church, our high appreciation of his character and sympathy with his family, here record the following minutes:

Resolved, 1. That in his death this session has lost one of its most faithful members, a man of pure and honest purpose, ever faithful in matters of trust and an earnest Christian.

Resolved, 2. That we treasure the memory of his blameless life, his wise counsels, his quiet zeal and his liberality in the cause of the Master.

Resolved, 3. That in placing upon record an expression of our sorrow in this bereavement, we can not do justice to our feeling by a mere compliance with the forms which custom has prescribed. Such an expression would be far too inadequate to the occasion. While conscious of our own sense of loss, we feel that by his death this community and county has lost one of its most valuable and patriotic citizens.

Resolved, 4. That the clerk of our session be directed to communicate a copy of these resolutions to the family of our deceased brother, as an expression of our sympathy in their bereavement.

CHANCES FOR HENDERSON DAM

Look Bright Since Washington Visit Kentucky and Indiana Delegations.

STANLEY A HARD WORKER—NEXT TO 'OUR OLLIE' GREATEST OF ALL

Washington, Jan. 8.—Western Kentucky and Southwestern Indiana's chief business men appeared to-day before the House Committee on Rivers and Harbors to tell why the next improvement on the Ohio river should take the form of a dam at Henderson, Ky. The delegation was composed of four men from Owensboro, eight from Henderson and twelve from Evansville.

In addition to these, Col. John L. Vance, president of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association; Representative Ollie M. James, of the First Kentucky district; Representative A. O. Stanley, of the Second; Representative John Boehne, of the First Indiana, and former Representative Frank B. Posey, of the First Indiana, appeared in behalf of the dam.

The committee looked favorably upon the project for which, among others, the following arguments were presented.

The Henderson dam is the only one recommended by the Army Board of Review of 1908 that is yet unbuilt.

Its construction will save $50,000 a year in wrecked shipping at Henderson.

It will give access to the natural and unique ice harbor at the mouth of Green river.

All Kentucky want it built. Southern Indiana wants it built.

Line Up Two Members.

The Kentucky delegations had last night secured the aid of two members of the Rivers and Harbors Committee at a dinner given the visiting Kentuckians by Representative Stanley. Here, in addition to the laymen, were gathered some of the most notable public men of the country—Col. Vance, Representative James, Representatives Underwood and Clayton, of Alabama; Representatives Pell and Burgess, of Texas; Representative Bowers, of Mississippi and Representative Tener, of Pennsylvania former Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks. Tener and Burgess, members of the committee, then pledged themselves to the Henderson dam.

At the very outset of the hearing, Representative Alexander Nye, chairman of the committee, remarked that there was no need to dwell on the Eastern Kentucky situation, as dam No. 29, the Big Sandy mouth project would be built. This is the cause in which a Ninth district delegation will be heard on Monday. Judge Posey, Col. Vance, J. E. Gunter, of Owensboro; B. S. Witt; A. Waller R. W. Ball and N. Powell Taylor, of Henderson, spoke. At one juncture of the hearing, Posey declared that water was needed in Western Kentucky to raise other things than "corn and hell."

The hearing occupied most of the morning and this afternoon the three cities' delegation interviewed Gen. W. L. Marshall, chief engineer of the army, who favors dredging a channel rather than building a dam.

Woman's Power

Over Man

Woman's most glorious endowment is the power to awaken and hold the pure and honest love of a worthy man. When she loses it and still loves on, no one in the wide world can know the heart agony she endures. The woman who suffers from weakness and derangement of her special womanly organism soon loses the power to sway the heart of a man. Her general health suffers and she loses her good looks, her attractiveness, her amiability and her power and prestige as a woman. Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., with the assistance of his staff of able physicians, has prescribed for and cured many ailments. It is known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It is a positive specific for the weaknesses and disorders peculiar to women. It purifies, regenerates, strengthens and heals. Medicine dealers sell it. No honest dealer will advise you to accept a substitute in order to make a little larger profit.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and strengthen Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

Low fares

On the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of each month, very low fare round trip tickets will be sold via the Cotton Belt Route to points in Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and Oklahoma. Take advantage of these low fares and investigate the wonderful opportunities now open in the Southwest. The 25 day return limit gives you ample time, and you can step over both going and returning.

The Direct Line to Texas

The Cotton Belt is the direct line from Memphis to the Southwest, through Arkansas. It operates two daily trains carrying through sleepers, chair cars and parlor-cars cars. Trains from all points make direct connection at Memphis with Cotton Belt trains for the Southwest.

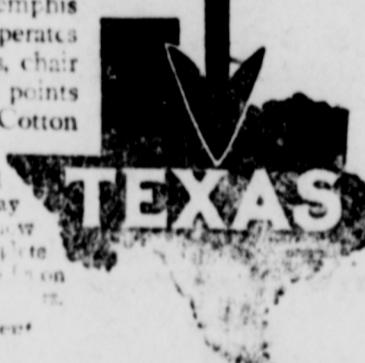

Do not delay, get ready to the Southwest until the Cotton Belt is in gone—write me to-day.

Address me at the office and I will show you how to get on the right trip and give you complete information. I will send you my schedule on request.

Better Not Get Dyspepsia

If you can help it, Kodol prevents Dyspepsia, by effectually helping Nature to Relieve Indigestion. But don't trifle with Indigestion.

A great many people who have trifled with Indigestion, have been sorry for it—when nervous or chronic dyspepsia resulted, and they have not been able to cure it. Use Kodol and prevent having Dyspepsia.

Everyone is subject to Indigestion. Stomach derangement follows stomach abuse, just as naturally and just as surely as a sound and healthy stomach results upon the taking of Kodol.

When you experience sourness of stomach, belching of gas and nauseating fluid, bloated sensation, gnawing pain in the pit of the stomach, heart burn (so-called), diarrhoea, headaches, dullness or chronic tired feeling—you need Kodol. And then the quicker you take Kodol—the better. Eat what you want, let Kodol digest it.

Ordinary pepsin "dyspepsia tablets," "physics," etc., are not likely to be of much benefit to you, in digestive ailments. Pepsin is only a partial digester—and physics are not digesters at all.

Kodol is a perfect digester. If you could see Kodol digesting every particle of food, of all kinds, in the glass test-tubes in our laboratories, you would know this just as well as we do.

Nature and Kodol will always cure a sick stomach—but in order to be cured, the stomach must rest. That is what Kodol does—rests the stomach, while the stomach gets well. Just as simple as A, B, C.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say that you have done any good, return the bottle to the druggist and we will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist a dollar. Don't hesitate, all druggists know the compensation plan. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 2½ times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.
